

O-Penn Mic 2.0

TinkerHub Talk Session — Event Report

Event Name	O-Penn Mic 2.0
Organized By	TinkerHub SBCE Pattoor
Date	6th August
Time	5:00 PM – 6:00 PM
Venue	Online(Google Meet)

Event Overview

The session focused on the topic "Confidence vs. Perfection."

Opening & Icebreaker: The event kicked off with an interactive icebreaker session utilizing a Q&A chat box to engage participants early on.

Core Discussion Points:

Definition and understanding of confidence, along with common myths related to it.

Discussion on perfection, addressing whether true perfection exists, and exploring Perfection vs. Excellence.

Interactive Q&A & Participant Discussion: A dedicated chat box Q&A session encouraged active participant engagement. Attendees unmuted, shared their personal experiences, open issues, and challenges they face.

Speaker Journey & Reflection: The speaker shared insights from their personal journey, followed by a collaborative discussion on the key themes raised by participants.

Wrap-up & Feedback: The session concluded with a comprehensive wrap-up and a final feedback collection segment from the participants.

"Real progress happens when we drop the pressure of perfection and open the door to connection."

Objectives

- To clarify the concept of confidence and debunk common myths surrounding it.
- To help participants distinguish between perfection and excellence, encouraging a healthier mindset toward personal growth.
- To create a safe, open environment where participants can step out of their comfort zones, express their thoughts, and share real-world challenges.
- To provide practical insights through interactive discussion and the speaker's personal experience.

Event Highlights

Ice breaking session in the start.

Active participation of the participants

O-Penn Mic poster

Q & A session

Outcome

- Active Engagement: Participants actively participated, transitioning from passive listening in the chat box to unmuting and openly speaking about their struggles.
- Shift in Mindset: Attendees gained clarity on the reality of perfection versus aiming for excellence.
- Open Dialogue & Peer Support: The interactive format allowed participants to voice their personal challenges and receive feedback from both the speaker and peers.
- Positive Feedback: Participants provided constructive and appreciative feedback during the closing wrap-up session.

Conclusion

The event successfully addressed key misconceptions surrounding confidence and perfection. By blending interactive icebreakers, speaker-led insights, and open group discussions, the session provided participants with actionable understanding and a comfortable space for self-expression. The positive participant interaction and feedback highlight the session's overall effectiveness and value.